QUEBEC

M2V unveils “Astronaut”: a first single produced by Christophe Martin

A clear and pleasant voice.

By Spikoli · Published on 21 April 2025 at 17:58 (America/Toronto)
Updated on 31 May 2025

CM Music unveils a new star of the Quebec hip-hop scene with the release of the first single from M2V, entitled Astronaute.

Supported by a signed production Christophe Martin, recognized for his work with major artists such as Souldia, Rymz and Loud, Astronaute is an invitation to escape and reflect. On a set instrumentation, M2V delivers a piece of music that is both reflective and hopeful, where he propels his thoughts light-years away from Earth to imagine a better world.

This title marks the official debut of M2V in the music industry and announces the upcoming release of a first album. The artist, yet to be discovered, is already distinguished by his sensitivity and ability to transmit universal emotions through a modern and accessible hip-hop.

Available on all platforms, Astronaute enjoys an enthusiastic reception on social networks, where the Quebec rap community is closely following the emergence of this new talent. Collaboration with Christophe Martin, a key figure in hip-hop production in Quebec, promises a career to watch for M2V.

> «Propel his thoughts to light years away from the Earth and hope for a better world, this is what the emerging artist wishes to convey through this track announcing a first album to be released in the coming months.»

CM Music invites the public to discover an artist whose career and creativity will attract a lot of comments and media attention in the near future.

You can follow the discography of M2V on his official account Spotify.

Read the original article
https://www.magazinehiphop.com/m2v-devoile-astronaute-un-premier-single-prometteur-produit-par-christophe-martin/